January 26, 2009

Rosenwald stated that we are here to review the financial books of the township for the year. He also noted that the Supervisors review and approve the claims submitted for payment each month during the year. Rosenwald said we will review every tenth check and receipt ending with the number that is randomly drawn from 0-9.

Kilgore picked number 4 from a pot including numbers 0-9 that were folded so the numbers could not be seen. The board went through the Bremer and the First State Bank Checking account registers of the clerk and treasurer reviewing each check that ended with the number 4. The board also went through the receipts that ended with the number 4.

The Board of Audit reviewed the checking account registers and found no errors. The carbon copies of checks 5094, 5104 and 5114, were not available for verification from the 7T Capital Project Fund. Krueger will bring them to the March 2, 2009 Town Board Meeting. Rosenwald made the motion to approve the disbursement registers of the clerk and treasurers financial records for 2008. Blegen seconded the motion. Motion carried. Rosenwald-aye, Blegen-aye.
